Trustee Case Summary:

This case was filed on October 7, 2011 as a Chapter 11 Reorganization. The company was a tax preparation and tax resolution company operating in multiple states with his headquarters in Charleston, SC. The case converted to Chapter 7 on Jan. 10th 2012. When the case converted it was extremely time sensitive due to the fact that the Debtor was in default on the terms of the lease and the landlord was preparing to remove the Debtor from the premises and personal financial information of tens of thousands of clients and their families and businesses would have been simply abandoned or thrown in the trash. This would have had tremendous potential for identity theft and other fraud episodes. The Chapter 7 trustee requested the appointment of a privacy ombudsman and Lucy Thompson was appointed. The Trustee also sought to immediately sell the assets of the business including a list of potential clients. However, only the clients themselves could opt in to the new purchaser and no financial records would be turned over to the purchaser until such time as the client gave written permission for the transfer of records. The Trustee obtained an offer and noticed the sale on an emergency basis. Part of the sale was the cost of destruction of any privacy information not transferred to the new company. The primary goal in this case was the safeguarding of the privacy information and the recovery of assets.

Although a sale was approved, it was to a backup buyer on virtually the same terms. The buyer encountered financial difficulty and was not able to complete the payments under the transaction terms. This resulted in additional cost to the estate due to increased legal costs to obtain judgments and collect against the guarantors of the buyer. The estate also pursued recovery actions against various companies and officers and directors of the Debtor. Although some funds were recovered, the officers and directors did not have the assets to satisfy the judgments and a substantial amount of money was simply never recoverable.

There are insufficient funds to pay all Administrative claims and thus the lower priority claims are not being reviewed. The Trustee is not abandoning the judgments against the officers and directors and if funds become available in the future, claims of a lower priority will be reviewed for distribution.

March 2017 The Trustee plans to close the case. Collection agents have been unable to find any assets that could be used to satisfy the outstanding judgments. The judgments appear to be uncollectible.
